

Tucked away in the southeastern Bahamas, Cat Island is an ideal destination for anglers seeking untapped action with marlin, dolphin, tuna and wahoo.

Cat Fights

BY GEORGE POVEROMO

Big-game fishermen are obsessed with running ever farther to escape the crowds and access untapped waters, and the southeastern Bahamas fills that bill nicely. San Salvador, Rum Cay and Cat Island are among the least-fished islands in the Bahamas chain, and the fish-rich waters here would be a parking lot if they weren't so far away.

I had long heard stories of the terrific dolphin and marlin fishing available off Cat Island, and en-