

from the marina, this is one of three major pieces of deep-water bottom structure off Cat Island. As its name implies, the point is a submerged extension of the island's southeastern corner, and spans roughly three miles before plummeting into the great depths. The prominent bottom structure and associated upwellings draw incredible amounts of bait and game fish.

Where to Stay

The Hawk's Nest Resort & Marina is a beachfront facility on the southern tip of Cat Island. It's located next to a 5,000-foot private airstrip and within walking distance of the 28-slip marina. The resort features ten air-conditioned, beachfront rooms and the two-bedroom Point House Villa. There's also a fresh water pool, a restaurant specializing in fresh seafood dinners and plenty of water-sports to keep non-fishermen busy. For more information, call (242) 342-
